

March 23, 2021

The ceremony of 2020 Nagayoshi Ho Scholarship Award

2021.3.23

On March 23, 2021, the ceremony of 2020 Nagayoshi Ho Scholarship Award was held at Josai International University and six international students who will study at Graduate School of International Administration (GSIA) department in the University from this April received the award. After the ceremony introduction done by dean of GSIA, Takahiro Suzuki, CEO of RS Technologies Co.,Ltd, Nagayoshi Ho, made a speech to the six award winners and passed the certificate of commendation. Award winners also made a speech and one of the winners said "In near future, I would like to work in either Japan or my mother country and contribute to the both countries. In order to do so, I will study really hard at Josai International University."

*Nagayoshi Ho Scholarship Award:

CEO of RS Technologies Co.,Ltd, Nagayoshi Ho, who graduated from Josai International University, with master degree of GSIA, established the award to those who have passion to learn Japanese culture and contribute to both Japan and mother country.

Please also see the news created by Josai International University.

https://www.jiu.ac.jp/inter_administration/news/detail/id=8817

Josai International University. (URL)

https://www.jiu.ac.jp/inter_administration/support/detail/id=3655

